CREED

We the class of 1976 do hereby declare our creed.

We believe that we are children of the Divine Maker, created to build a brighter tomorrow.

We believe that we have come thus far to the satisfaction of our parents, counselors and teachers and we promise to continue to make them proud of us.

We believe in the spirit of Armstrong High School--the friendly people, the happy atmosphere, and the feeling of unity.

We believe that we can join forces with the other young men and women in our society and someday overcome the problems of this country.

We believe in ourselves. We believe that we are the responsible adults of tomorrow. We feel that we can institute the makings of a better government.

We further believe that we can conduct ourselves in such a manner that we would be respected as young men and women. We believe we can unite ourselves with the rest of our environment and make the world a better place in which to live.

We believe that we are inspiring the underclassmen to strive for success.

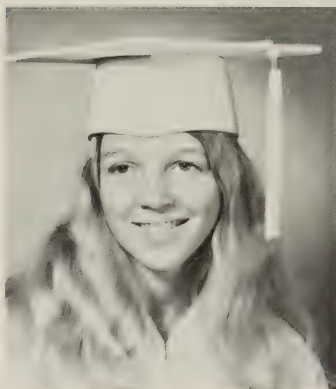

We believe in God, the maker of Heaven and Earth. Without his watchful eye we would not have come thus far.

As we leave Armstrong High School we say, God Bless you all.

CLASS SONG

Tune: "Midnight Blue"

by Belinda White

For every smile and every face,
We shall never forget this place,
Forget this place.
We'll never forget the laughs and the tears,
And all of the events in our four years.
I know we can make it, when we leave Armstrong--
The school we have loved so long.

To the teachers, friends that we've met,
We value your friendship, but we will regret,
We will regret
Leaving your guidance, love, and foresight;
You were our guiding light.
I know we can make it, when we leave Armstrong--

Whenever we thank of Armstrong High,
We will shed a tear for times gone by, and we will cry.
We'll think of the faces, places and smiles.
That lasted only a while.
I know we can make it, when we leave Armstrong--
The school we have loved so long.
Wouldn't you give your heart to your school?
Think of it as your friend.
And I know we can make it.
And I know we can make it.
And I know we can make it.

Stanley Whitehead leads the Choir in the singing of "Amazing Grace" under the direction of Mr. Harry Savage.

The Judge

The Honorable Willard H. Douglas, Justice of Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court, inspired the members of the class of '75 to look up and reach out.

The Senator

The Honorable Lawrence Douglas Wilder, Senator of the Commonwealth of Virginia, gives a Community Award to Janice Bridy.

CLASS POEM

Goodbye, Armstrong

This school has brought many memories--
Many that I slightly recall;
But as my last year comes to an end,
I am strongly remembering them all.

No longer will I see the Principal's happy face
Or the markings on the wall.
No longer will I see fellow Armstrong-ites
Moving hurriedly down the hall.

No longer will I need the Counselor's advice
To guide me as I go,
For I have had great education
To carry me to and fro.

I can always stand up for what's right
And never be ashamed;
For I have been to a great school,
And I'm proud to say the name.

But I have to leave this great place
To see more and brighter lights.
So goodbye, dear Armstrong.
I must go on to higher heights.

by Sarah Pendergrass

DECA

Distributive Education students listen out for job opportunities when experience speaks through industry. They get a chance to sample business as it is by running the school store. Installation of officers is also a part of their activities.

To communicate is to understand. Members of the English Club are interested in verbal and written communication. These Xanadu Staff members prepare the copy and art-work for their school magazine.

BLACKS AND THE BICENTENNIAL

Willie Green

Our country is now approaching its two-hundredth year of freedom, and most Americans will be celebrating the Bicentennial. Many people, however, question if Blacks should participate in the event at all, since they themselves have not been free for that long. On the other hand, Blacks should honor their brothers who did participate in the fight for American freedom. These heroes and their accomplishments should be remembered and recognized.

The Bicentennial celebration will probably show how brilliantly the patriots fought the British for independence from unjust laws and tyranny. Will the unfair laws and inhumane tactics which the Americans used on Blacks be also shown? The Bicentennial celebration will honor men such as George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, John Adams, and Patrick Henry. Crispus Attucks will probably be included to satisfy Blacks by showing them that they were involved in the Revolution. Such a man as Peter Salem was also present, but he and other Blacks may not be commemorated. Peter Salem fought in the Battle of Bunker Hill. During the third assault from the British, the King's men advanced to the colonists' positions. As the British commander exultantly cried, "The day is ours," Salem shot and killed him. The shot came at a crucial moment in the battle; the colonists were running low on ammunition and becoming discouraged. Peter Salem's action gave the colonist time to rally for a successful withdrawal.

In the Declaration of Independence, our early patriots stated, "All men are created equal." They contradicted this belief, however, when they enslaved black people, forcing them to be inferior. Surely the Blacks were not working under the peculiar institution of slavery as a result of the statement in the same document that "all men are endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

Slavery grew after the Revolutionary War. America, however, was one of the first countries to ban the slave trade in the Western Hemisphere. This act offered but little hope, since America became the least cooperative country in international efforts to enforce the ban.

Finally Blacks decided it was time for their revolution. They wanted to become free men. They began with small, unsuccessful slave revolts led by men such as Nat Turner, Gabriel Prosser, and Denmark Vessey. These men died as bravely for their cause as the patriots of America during the Revolutionary War did.

The revolts were followed by abolitionist efforts. Some of the black abolitionists were Frederick Douglass, Sojourner Truth, James A. Healy, and Norbert Rillieux. This group of great Blacks were followed by successful black leaders like George W. Carver, W.E.B. DuBois, Paul Lawrence Dunbar, Booker T. Washington, and Daniel Hale Williams.

The final group of Blacks to be added to our nation's history was the men and women such as Mary McLeod Bethune, Charles Drew, Marcus Garvey, Elijah Muhammed, Edward Brooke, Shirley Chisholm, Martin Luther King, Jr., Malcolm X, Thurgood Marshall, Barbara Jordan, Adam Powell, Bobby Seals, and Roy Wilkins. These Blacks fought for success in all areas of human endeavor.

Despite the active participation of Blacks throughout the past two-hundred years, you will probably visit places and exhibits in which their accomplishments will be ignored. You will be completely unaware of their presence, despite the accounts of their efforts found in unbiased histories and official records. During the Bicentennial, however, notable Blacks, as well as the great white American patriots, should be honored. Blacks hopefully will also one day be able to commemorate their own bicentennial of freedom.

PROFESSIONAL AMBULANCE SERVICE INCORPORATED

Professional Ambulance Service Incorporated is the newest ambulance service to open in the Richmond area. Professional features a fleet of fully equipped ambulances and special Cardiac Care Unit.

Professional also has a complete showroom of Convalescent equipment and sickroom necessities. We at Professional, saw a need for a service in the East End area to provide a means of transportation that was not immediately available in this area. Our office is located at 31st and Clay Streets which gives us easy access to all of the east end areas. Professional is staffed with trained and qualified drivers and attendants to give you the best care and emergency medical attention that any ambulance service can offer. Our Convalescent center and business offices are open Monday through Friday from 9-5 p.m. Our ambulances run 24 hrs. a day.

CADETS

LOOKING AHEAD JROTC PROGRAM FOR 76-77

How would you like to be wearing one of these uniforms next year? YOU CAN! Just by putting JROTC on your choice of class card or by notifying your counselor. The JROTC is a proud group of young men and women who are among the best in the school. We in the JROTC extend the challenge to you of becoming one of the greatest leaders in the school and community.

Next year will certainly be a great year for the JROTC. Some of the activities that we will participate in are listed below:

1. Tobacco Festival Parade Pep Rallies
2. Provide Escorts for AHS Activities
3. 22 Rifle Team Competition, at Fort Lee, Virginia
4. Rifle Familiarization, Map Reading, and First Aid Training at Fort Pickett, Virginia.
5. Drill Competition and Support at Virginia State College ROTC DAY, Petersburg, Virginia
6. National Drill Competition at Georgetown University, Washington, D.C.
7. Drill Competition and Support at Hampton Institute's ROTC DAY at Hampton, Virginia
8. Visit service Installations
Fort Lee, Virginia—Fort Eustis, Virginia
Norfolk Naval Base, Virginia—Fort Myer, Virginia
